The Fail-Proof Formula to Dress Your Body with Ease and Confidence

CRUSHING UNMET STYLE NEEDS, ONE CLOSET AT A TIME

Since 1993 Style-Reboot Coach Patty Buccellato has shown the way for hundreds of women leaders and business owners to discover their hidden style mastery.

Contrary to popular belief, surveys show nearly half of all women hate to shop for clothing. Talented and successful women who are among that 50% call upon Patty for rescue. For them, she busts fashion myths, purveys wardrobe hacks, and teaches how to identify the style that changes success trajectories.

Patty is expert at bringing her clients out of the closet with a personal style that suits their body, psyche, and circumstances. The result: her clients find permission to break up with "blah" and unleash their natural magnetism.
